NATIONAL COUNCIL OF SPACE GRANT DIRECTORS' CHARTER

Revised October 23, 2004

SECTION 1: NAME

The name of this organization shall be: NATIONAL COUNCIL OF SPACE GRANT DIRECTORS, a voluntary affiliation of the directors of NASA Space Grant Consortia.

SECTION 2: OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the NATIONAL COUNCIL OF SPACE GRANT DIRECTORS (hereinafter referred to as the Council) are as follows:

A. To aid in the development and the evolution of the Space Grant Program
B. To increase the communication among the Directors of Space Grant programs (in support of the stated NASA goal of creating a network of universities involved in space- and aeronautics-related teaching, and research and development)
C. To provide a forum for mutual support of the directors in the performance of their respective responsibilities for leadership to their individual Space Grant programs
D. To identify areas of common interests in which cooperation and collaboration among programs may prove beneficial
E. To develop mechanisms to accomplish such cooperation
F. To serve as a liaison between Space Grant Consortia and external national and international organisations

It is the expectation and the intent that the National Council of Space Grant Directors serves as a vehicle for building and maintaining a dynamic relationship within the academic, research, and industrial communities for space- and aeronautics-related activities. Further, it is expected that these collaborative efforts will facilitate interactions among Member Institutions and federal agencies, most notably NASA. Consequently, this unique relationship shall strengthen each Member's ability to develop space- and aeronautics-related activities.

SECTION 3: MEMBERSHIP

3.1 MEMBERSHIP
A. The membership of the Council shall consist of the Directors of all of the NASA Space Grant Consortia.
B. Members are expected to contribute to and participate in Council activities.
