

The Streit Council
and the School of Public Policy
George Mason University

Transatlantic Perspectives on Current Financial and Economic Developments

*March 6, 2012
11:00am-12:30pm*

School of Public Policy, George Mason University, 3351 Fairfax Drive, Arlington, Virginia 22201
(two blocks east of Virginia Square Metro Station on the Orange Line)
Founders Hall 602

Roundtable Discussion for the U.S. Department of State's International Visitor Leadership Program

Introduction:

Richard Conn Henry, President, Streit Council

Moderator:

Desmond Dinan, School of Public Policy, George Mason University

Speakers:

Mark Weisbrot, Center for Economic and Policy Research, Washington, D.C.

Sonia Ketkar, School of Public Policy, George Mason University

Jeremy Mayer, School of Public Policy, George Mason University

Participants:

Foreign visitors—mostly government officials—participating in the International Visitor Leadership Program's project on U.S. Financial Systems and the Global Economy

Topics:

- Impact of global economic and financial developments on U.S. politics, foreign policy and EU-U.S. relations
- U.S. perspectives on international economic and monetary issues
- Issues related to the global financial crisis and U.S. efforts to promote financial stability
- U.S. investment in emerging markets and programs that assist developing markets
- Transferable U.S. experiences in banking, private and public sector financing, regulatory institution development and academic analysis of market economy conditions.

All Welcome